Parish Health Ministry (PHM)

Excerpts printed with permission from ACST

"Lazarus, come out!"

If there is a biblical story that is brimming with genuine, raw, and heartfelt human emotion, today's Gospel is it. It's the story of Jesus raising Lazarus from the dead. This has it all: sadness, anger, fear, dread, connection, empathy, and then awe, joy, and astonishment. There are, however, some moments in this story that are confusing. After hearing Lazarus was sick, Jesus stayed two days longer. When he heard Lazarus had died, he said he was going to go wake him up. Naturally, the disciples were confused and concerned. Jesus was walking right back into a potential trap—the Jews had just tried to stone him in Judea. If Lazarus was dead, it was too late anyway; why go back and risk it? So if all this wasn't gut-wrenching enough, by the time Jesus made it to the outskirts of town, everyone was still in shock and mourning Lazarus' death, and Jesus joined right in, weeping himself. He was surrounded by people who KNEW what Jesus could do. Jesus could have saved him... Lazarus wouldn't be dead right now if Jesus had only been here. When Jesus got to the tomb, it was probably expected that he would mourn with the others, not ask for the grave to be opened. By this time, it had been four days. And "dead is dead," so Martha said what anyone would have: this is going to stink. But Jesus was unstoppable. After he prayed, he "cried out in a loud voice," "Lazarus, come out!" Imagine gasps. The clamor. The shocked expressions. And then, Lazarus came out of the grave. Alive. We read this story in Lent to acknowledge that it is the pivotal moment in Jesus' ministry. This was a miracle that couldn't be swept under the rug, minimized, or explained away. Lazarus was dead—four days dead—and yet came out of the tomb alive when Jesus called him. It was more than the Jewish leaders could handle. For us, this moment can be emotional, meaningful, and deeply personal. Jesus calls Lazarus his friend—and he calls us friends, too. And he is calling each of us back to life. To step out of whatever keeps us separated from him: fear, anger, jealousy, illusions, distrust, defensiveness, old habits, or emotional blind spots. As we near Holy Week, can we listen for his voice? Can we hear him calling us, too, to come out? Consider: This long Scripture passage unfolds in several movements—each one mirroring a movement of our own hearts. Take a moment to sit with these movements and notice where they echo your own experience:

- Naming the Loss (Lord, if you had been here, this might not have happened.)
- Sitting in the Delay (I am waiting for you, and I don't yet understand why.)
- Bringing the Grief to Jesus (You see and receive my pain for what it is.)
- Hearing the Truth Again ("I am the resurrection and the life.")
- He Weeps With Me (I am not alone in what hurts.)
- Standing at the Tomb (I face what feels absolutely final, and you ask me to trust you here.)
- Rising When He Calls (Nothing is stronger than your voice.)

Whisper Prayer: Yes, Lord. I have come to believe.

Listening with the Church — Fifth Sunday of Lent Unbound Together After Jesus calls Lazarus out of the tomb, he says to those gathered, "Untie him and let him go" (John 11:44). The miracle isn't just in rising—it's in being set free and guided back into life with the support of others. In the same way, our faith isn't meant to be lived in isolation. The Catechism reminds us that the parish is the "community of the faithful" and a "visible center of unity" where the Church is present in daily life (CCC 2179). We are strengthened, encouraged, and sometimes unbound through the support, prayer, and example of our fellow believers. This week, consider: What binds you in fear, habit, or doubt? Who in your parish, family, or circle of friends helps you walk into the freedom Jesus offers? And how might you be a source of that same support for someone else?

Pastoral Council Seeking Members

The Pastoral Council is an advisory body to the Pastor.

The Pastoral Council Constitution states:

The Pastoral Council is concerned, in general, with implementing, at the parish level, the mission of the Diocese of Harrisburg:

“To share the experience of salvation received from Jesus Christ in the living Catholic tradition of Word and Sacrament, drawing all persons into a believing, hoping, loving, and serving community which, empowered by the Spirit, gives glory to the Father through Jesus, Lord and Savior.”

The primary goal of the Pastoral Council is continual spiritual renewal and outreach. The Pastoral Council will discover and listen to the needs of the Parish and set parish directions by prayerful reflection.

The council has 12 members from the congregation with diverse backgrounds and experience. We discuss current issues in the church and review reports from other ministries including Faith Formation, Health Ministry and Youth Ministry. The council generally meets monthly except for the month of July.

We are seeking four members to start their term in June 2026.

If you are interested in being considered for a position on the council, please call Kim Mikulski at 717-569-8531 by March 23, 2026 to give your name and receive a brief questionnaire.

If you would like additional information about the council, email Warren Wasiewski at W3pharma@gmail.com.

St. Anne-Neumann Seniors "Nearer My God to Thee"

Please join us on Tuesday, March 24th. Our special guest speaker will be Diane Albertson. Diane has been telling stories for approximately 35 years. She began storytelling when she worked with the Children's Ministry at her local church. However, she found her target audience to be Senior Groups. Diane loves to take historical stories and weave a Bible story into it.

Diane will be sharing one of her favorite stories, "Nearer My God to Thee" with us. This is a story of a young woman who is an Irish immigrant on the Titanic.

Sign in at 12:30 in the Narthex. $3 admission donation. General meeting begins at 1 p.m. in the Social Hall. Light refreshments will be served.

All are welcome, bring a friend!

Any questions, call Gina White at 717-569-9364.

The Diocese of Harrisburg is in the midst of a feasibility study to receive feedback on the best way to address immediate needs and to strengthen funding for our ministries in the years ahead. For the next several weeks, we will be highlighting the priorities of the campaign. To learn more about these priorities, review the mailing you received or go to steiergroup.com/survey and select Roman Catholic Diocese of Harrisburg.

Priority: We must give every person the opportunity to have Christ in their life, build a relationship with Him, and experience the joy that comes from living by faith. We need to more effectively assist parishes in finding new ways to bring hearts to Christ – reaching out to those who are struggling to feel connected to Him and seeking a greater purpose in life. The diocese would like to expand the FOCUS missionary discipleship program, empower grassroots evangelization efforts in parishes, engage with and support our expanding multicultural ministry programs, and create a general-purpose endowment for the Office of Catholic Life and Evangelization.

Priority: The diocese delivers exceptional and unparalleled support to 88 parishes, 6 missions, and 32 schools across our 15-county region – at little or no cost to those we serve. This vital assistance strengthens our faith communities, enhances education, and sustains parish life. To preserve and grow this level of service, we must invest in the infrastructure and resources that enable it.

Share your feedback on these important initiative and others by completing the feasibility study survey at: steiergroup.com/survey or scan the QR code and select Roman Catholic Diocese of Harrisburg.
